Psycho Zoo

Phantom

I saw the stars fall from the sky Crashing all around Feel the flame steal my eyes Vaporize the ground

Red lines flashing World is crashing

Red alert, red alert, code psycho zoo!

Thunder roars across the sea A child cries alone On a crumbled street with glass in his feet He dies with shattered bones

Red lines flashing God, we're crashing

Red alert, red alert, code psycho zoo!

Storm clouds gather, nothing matters now

The drums all stop, the flags all burn In a silent night The smoke filled air swirls and turns No "Into glory, ride!"

Redrum, redrum In the asylum

Red alert, red alert, code psycho zoo!
