

Once Upon a Time

Pharao

Once upon a time
On a warm and sunny day
He came in my life
I tell everything he said to me
And he said "Just love me hold your hand"
But I did not understand
He said "I'll love you for your love
But I think that's not enough"
Once upon a time
On a sunny day
In a Light
On a sunny day
When he took my hand
A warm day at the beach
The warm sand under my feet
I let my feelings go
I know I have found love
Once upon a time
On a have gone away
We'll never meet again
I remember what he said to me
And he said "Just love me hold your hand"
But I did not understand
He said "I'll love you for your love
But I think that's not enough"
