

It Must Be Love

Phenomena

feels so right
feels so good
it feels so right
it must be love

lost in the moment
the world far away
for once in my life
don't know what to say is this the magic
i've been searching for?
hooked on the feeling
oh - give me more

feels so right
feels so good
it feels so right

like a child with a secret don't want to give in flying so high
like a kite in the wind losy in hesitation
too late - too soon?
for once in my life
shooting for the moon

feels so right
feels so good
it feels so right
it must be love

wide-eyed and breathless
out of control
a prisoner of love
body and soul
drowning in passion
behind locked doors
i surrender
can't take any more
