

Love Is Alive

Phil Vassar

One hundred miles till I get home
And I can't wait to get you alone
And hold you as close as I can get
You think you've been loved
You haven't been yet

Feel your hair against my skin
It takes me somewhere I've never been
Girl, I love you, you love me
We carved it on the willow tree

And love, love is alive tonight
Love is alive,
Love is alive tonight

Your mama likes me, your daddy does too
He likes this cross on my tattoo
Reminds him of when he was younger
I'm starving, girl, with this hunger

I can't ever satisfy,
It's burning me up deep inside
And I can't get enough of this
I need a long forever kiss

And your love, love is alive tonight
Love is alive,
Love is alive tonight

Love tells the truth, it never lies
It never looks for alibis
It's smaller than a baby's touch
It's bigger than the both of us

Girl, you're deep inside of me
Where I thought no one could ever be
Can't wait a minute longer
Can you feel it getting stronger

Love, love is alive tonight
Love is alive,
Love is alive tonight

Yeah, it's bigger than the whole, wide world
And it's in you, and in me, girl
Love is black, and love is white
It's never wrong, it's always right

It's a candle you can't hide
And it's a roller coaster ride
Yeah, love is alive
