

I'll Always Love You

Phil Wickham

In the world that is falling apart I have found my hope
He's the Power that brightens the stars and brought to life my soul
Now I'll calling from rooftops shouting from mountain peaks
You're everything to me

Forever I will tell You
yeah I'll scream until it hurts
That I can't live without You
You are heaven, I am earth
And even from the moment that You saved my life I knew
That I'll always love You

Hallelujah the battle is won, let the church bells ring
Hallelujah, salvation is come and it came for me
What was lost, now is found and the heart that was bound now is free
Your grace amazes me

Forever I will tell You
yeah I'll scream until it hurts
That I can't live without You
You are heaven, I am earth
And even from the moment that You saved my life I knew
That I'll always love You
I'll always love You

Forever I will tell You
yeah I'll scream until it hurts
That I can't live without You
You are heaven, I am earth
And even from the moment that You saved my life I knew

Forever I will tell You
yeah I'll scream until it hurts
That I can't live without You
You are heaven, I am earth
And even from the moment that You saved my life I knew
That I'll always love You
