

Joy

Phil Wickham

You heard my cry for mercy, You heard my cry for help
And You turned Your ear to hear me, to save me from myself
When I think of all You've done,
Oh my heart is overcome with

Joy, joy, unending joy, always joy will remain
Joy, joy, I sing for joy, always forever I'll stay in Your joy

The chains have all been broken, the walls have all come down
And here I stand forgiven, in this grace that I have found
When I think of all You've done,
Oh my heart is overcome with

Joy, joy, unending joy, always joy will remain
Joy, joy, I sing for joy, always forever I'll stay in Your joy

My heart will sing, my heart will sing for joy
Forever I'll sing, forever I'll sing for joy
(2x)

Joy, joy, unending joy, always joy will remain
Joy, joy, I sing for joy, always forever I'll stay in Your joy
(2x)

Forever I'll stay in Your joy
