

Light from long-dead stars
Still journeys so far.
Celestial are the hearts,
Still love when love's passed...

You are my rosary,
You are my rosary.

I would abandon the moon,
Turning my back to the light
Till it's just me and the dark
Before your heart,
Here tonight.
I would abandon the moon,
Raise up the stars from their space
Till it's just me and the dark
Before your heart
Here in this place.
Then you would be all I see.

Love is all I need,
Your touch, your heart.
Love is all I want,
One light still on.

You are my rosary,
But you were not sent for me...

I would abandon the moon,
Turning my back to the light
Till it's just me and the dark
Before your heart,
Here tonight.
I would abandon the moon,
Raise up the stars from their space
Till it's just me and the dark
Before your heart
Here in this place.
Then you would be all I see.
Then you would be all I see.
