

Mistakes

Phidel

"It's too much to discuss sobre."
I know just why you think,
That you need an anaesthetised mouth to
Say all those bladed things.

Need you like I need a headache,
Need you like I need my mistakes, right here.
Need you like I need a downpour,
I don't need you but I need so much more, right here.

It's too much to discuss lovers,
I know how much you've lied.
It's too much to discuss numbers,
I know how much I've let slide.

Need you like I need a headache,
Need you like I need my mistakes, right here.
Need you like I need a downpour,
I don't need you but I need so much more, right here.

Time is always, harder on the quiet days,
Brings back up that old sacrifice:
You've cost me more than I ever knew before,
And looking back I cannot deny.

Need you like I need a headache,
Need you like I need my mistakes.
Need you like I need a downpour,
I don't need you but I need so much more.

Need you like I need a headache,
Need you like I need my mistakes, right here.
Need you like I need a downpour,
I don't need you but I need so much more, right here.
