

For All The World

Phillips, Craig & Dean

Upon a night so dark
They saw a brilliant star
Heaven was reaching down
Heaven was reaching down

The long awaited One
The Father's perfect Son
The lost can now be found
The lost can now be found

Rejoice, in a manger lay
The promise of God's love for us
For everyone

Rejoice, here upon this day
Our Emmanuel has come
Blessed hope for all the world

There in the humble place
Though just a tiny babe
Our God victorious
Our God victorious

A perfect life to live
He chose to bear our sin
We sing, "How glorious"
We sing, "How glorious"

Rejoice, in a manger lay
The promise of God's love for us
For everyone

Rejoice, here upon this day
Our Emmanuel has come
Blessed hope for all the world

Heaven and angels sing
The coming of the King
The only Son of God most high
His name is Jesus Christ

Rejoice, in a manger lay
The promise of God's love for us
For everyone

Rejoice, here upon this day
Our Emmanuel has come
Blessed hope for all

Rejoice, in a manger lay
The promise of God's love for us
For everyone

Rejoice, here upon this day
Our Emmanuel has come
