I can't talk my talk with you Nothing's ever soaking through The filter that surrounds your thoughts And holds out lessons left untaught

I can't talk my talk with you Nothing's ever soaking through The filter that surrounds your thoughts And holds out lessons left untaught

I can't talk my talk with you

I can't sing my song with you Nothing's ever soaking through The filter that surrounds your thoughts And holds out lessons left untaught

I can't sing this song with you Nothing's ever soaking through The filter that surrounds your thoughts And holds out lessons left untaught

I can't sing my song with you I can't talk my talk with you
