

Too Sick To Pray

Phosphorescent

I've been too sick to pray, Lord
That's why we ain't talked in a while
It's been some of them days, Lord
I thought I was on my last smile

But I'm feelin' okay, Lord
And I'm glad that I called You today
Never needed You more, would've called You before
But I've been too sick to pray

Remember the family, Lord
Well, I know they remember You
And all their prayers, Lord
Don't they talk to You just like I do

Reckon that's all, Lord
That's all I can think of to say
Never needed You more, would've called You before
But I've been too sick to pray
