

Look at that rich girl twitch like me she can't sit still How would you want it seen?
Just like when you were ill?
When you hear the way they talk the rosy cheeks of the ruling classes You can argue all you like they swear by early nights Never meant to be like this a lot colder but the people were warm If anyone was coming to get you armed only with a sugar bowl
Used to leave your back doors
Used to leave your back doors open
Used to leave your back doors
Used to leave your back doors open
All the houses on the Crown Estate all look the same That nut from four doors down wandered in by mistake again and said to your old mum,
"I think it's best that you sit down I'll make a cup of tea and you can show me what a woman looks like with her head turned inside out"
Used to leave the back doors, etc
