

Torture

Picture Me Broken

I wear a face to hide the flesh but I can't recreate
The blood beneath my skin and the errors of my fate
I can't escape this mask because the mask is wearing me
And I don't accept the symptoms of my insecurities
I love how you hate me
Torture and break me
Cause I'm not kind
To the world inside
Hate me
Hold and embrace me
And bleed the life tonight
I love how you hate me
This mirror gave me an infection mental devils draining me
Waging war cause my reflection is the enemy I see
Shatter every mirror, destroy each camera lens
Ensure that I will never have to see its face again
I love how you hate me
Torture and break me
Cause I'm not kind
To the world inside
Hate me
Hold and embrace me
And bleed the life tonight
I love how you hate me
This love and hate is just the same hopeless obsession

I love how you hate me
Torture and break me
Cause I'm not kind
To the world inside
Hate me
Hold and embrace me
And bleed the life tonight
I love how you hate me
Torture and break me
I love how you hate me
