

Haven't Tried It

Piebald

I haven't tried it, but I think I've quite decided I won't wake you when you're dead
And if you mind them you can just go out and find them
Take all their stuff and pave over the land
Great communicator no time to wait you are no waiter

Or should I say you won't save anything
If you find a way out that will never do somehow Handshakes ill-fated ownership that you created
You better watch that face that you've got on

Charming wasichu it is not so nice to meet you Evolution doesn't stop right here or now
