

Haven't Tried It

Piebald

I haven't tried it, but I think I've quite decided I won't wake you when you're dead

And if you mind them you can just go out and find them

Take all their stuff and pave over the land

Great communicator no time to wait you are no waiter

Or should I say you won't save anything

If you find a way out that will never do somehow

Handshakes ill-fated ownership that you created

You better watch that face that you've got on

Charming wasichu it is not so nice to meet you

Evolution doesn't stop right here or now
