

Stay Away from My Friends

Pierce the Veil

Waking up your neighbors downstairs
I've been inside your bedroom a thousand years
And as you tie me to the bed for good I say that I want you in the most unromantic ways

Louisiana, you're torturing me with a beautiful face
Ana come on, I thought we had a damn good thing (damn good thing)
A penny in the couch and a diamond ring

So baby stay away from my friends
Because I need them to carry me when it's over I'll count back from ten and you can listen to glass hearts shattering

I don't know how you got into me
Down my throat and made a home in my veins
They used to be the rivers that would take us away
But now you only call me every Christmas and my birthday
I still can't believe how you look next to me
Just like a strip club bedroom scene

Baby stay away from my friends
Because I need them to carry me when it's over
I'll count back from ten
And you can listen to something that you've never heard before (never heard before)

But you don't know what it's like to wake up in the middle of the night
Scaring the thought of kissing razors
This blood evacuation is telling me to cave in Stay away
Oh no
Just stay away from my friends.
