

Texas Is Forever

Pierce the Veil

(Here we are!)

Can you tell that story? It's my favourite one.
I'm a fucking disappointment, I can't entertain you anymore.
These stupid states of mind.
(Everyone!)
Punishing me all the time.
But don't cross your boundaries and think that it's cool.
Misguided by darkness and lost on the road.

I'm such a sucker for the rain.

Here we are, crashing once again into the centre of your moonlit face
, our caved in ribs.
Your tears, they fall on my tongue and our lips are letting go.
We lay on the side of the road.

(Go!)

Pull the trigger tight and watch our distances explode. (Explode!)
If distance seems forever where's your home sweet home?
If anything should happen to me, I'll want you to know.
I've loved you since, ever since then.
Don't dance around me, I know what it means.
No communication cannot be received.

But I'm such a sucker for the rain, yeah.
(Oh)

(Here we are!)
Crashing once again into the centre of your moonlit face, our caved in ribs.
Your tears, they fall on my tongue and our lips are letting go.
We lay on the side of the road.

(Don't... chase...your...nightmares!)

(Yeah!)

Here we are.
Crashing once again into the centre of your moonlit face, our caved in ribs.
Your tears, they fall, our lips are locked and let the girls in.
I can never let them, never let them go.

(The side of the road.)

So take a deep breath and chase them with mine!
Your southern hearts would tell a deep, wild mind!
