Arbor Vitae

This is the good for my belief, this is the gun for my relief This is the god This is the gun One is for killing one is for fun... fun... fun!

Pow pow! Easy come pow pow pow easy go Pow pow! Easy come pow pow pow easy go

This is the good for my belief, this is the gun for my relief This is the god This is the gun One is for killing one is for fun

I am the town that loves to lie, that shame passed by This is the city where the widows weep, the only answer to my conceit My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight You are the one I recognise but in your warmth I could realize I am the sum of all I despise but I soon start to feel Alive!

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah! You are the good for my belief, this is the bullet for my relief This is the god This is the gun One is for killing one is for fun

My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight Here is the good in my belief, this is the bullet that's my relief This is the god This is the gun One is for killing one is for fun He is made for my belief here is the bullet for my relief This is the god This is the gun One is for killing one is for fun Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah!

I could kill someone tonight, slip and slide to the hurt and high Run around with a Switchblade Come with you in the morning light

My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight This finger itches for the spike and spoon In this city where you weep Into the womb that is your only tomb! My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight In the tonight he'll give me what I need tonight My god is good my god is right he'll give me what I need tonight
