

Aftershock

Pillar

It's plain to see that all you care about are the pockets that you fill
But you don't want to hear me talk about the reasons that we're here
I don't know if I can go without even if you lock me down
I don't care how much you scream and shout
I'll never be part of the crowd
And I will make a sound, I will let my voice resound
I can't let my spirit break, we're bout to make the earth shake

So, break all these chains that keep me bound
And break through these gates that lock me down
So, break all these chains that keep me bound
And break through these gates that lock me down

I can't even feel a little pain
No matter what you do to me, you will never hear my heart compl ain
No matter what you think you see

And I will make a sound, I will let my voice resound
I can't let my spirit break, we're bout to make the earth shake

So, break all these chains that keep me bound
And break through these gates that lock me down
So, break all these chains that keep me bound
And break through these gates that lock me down

So, break all these chains that keep me bound
And break through these gates that lock me down
So, break all these chains that keep me bound
And break through these gates that lock me down
