

Live For Him

Pillar

Give me a couple minutes maybe one or two to tell you about the time I'm spendin' with my crew Travelin' down the road on the way to the show Fraff backseat scribin' writing words that'll flow Bradley bringing beats, Kalel boomin' the bass I'm a vessel of the spirit singin' in this place We're battle soldiers caught in spritual warfare fightin' for the souls of the lost in this dark nightmare Eternal flames and the gnashing of teeth, man the thought of anyone living there we just can't stand

Are you believing, loving, living receiving his love, his giving

We got this question for you to ask yourself over again
Are you gonna live in sin or are you gonna live for him?
We're gonna let you know, we're gonna show you how If you want to live for him you have to do it right now

You see it's written in stone that thou shalt not steal That's why we're coming out of our speakers givin' you somethin' real, I feel good and at the same time when we praise God we make the crowd jump up, we make your head bob

I know you think you're ok but you've never ever felt this way I know you think you're alright but you take him inside in spite I know you think you're alone but you're not, so here we go
