

Only Some Shitty Chemical Stuff

Pin-Up Went Down

Oh my love, will you will you be
Oh you, will you ever be mine?
Oh my love, will you will you be
Oh you, will you ever be mine?

Depends on your shaker, on your shaker
Depends on your apocrine
If you're able to survive the PEA lost

Always the same stuff
Always the same words
An only pleasant scent.
If you're not the one,
I only have to wait...

Oh my love, will you will you be
Oh you, will you ever be mine?
Oh my love, will you will you be
Oh you, will you ever be mine?

Depends on your shaker, on your shaker
Depends on your apocrine
If you're able to survive the PEA lost!

That ain't no soulmate
Nor mawkishness like that
Nor a bunch of violets.

Always the same stuff
Always the same words
An only pleasant scent.
If you're not the one,
I only have to wait...

"Oh, go, go, go! Make your peacock and sing with your honeyed voice
Don't be surprised if I spit on your feathers
And what they imply...
You should stop now
Oh, birdy asshole... you just walked on shit... "
