

I looked through a window just to let my mind flow then i saw a friend who was looking for a friend too spoke of her father said he'll be leaving us she'll be so lonely and i want to understand then i'll try to convince her

there'll be better days

got to be patient
i always told her somedays are diamond ooh, the words that i sold her

she wants to be happy
she can't find a remedy
her obligations will never let her fly away

there'll be better days
Better Days

So i'll try to convince her
there'll be better days
there'll be better days
gonna find you a better day

Better days...

so maybe she can fly away to a better day, a better day...
