

Reach for the fire, people conspire,
The chemical burnt the rush.
The whole world is waiting, anticipating
Safely behind closed doors.

And now we're looking at the faces of evil,
Define my ignorance in cover lands
Along the roads just can't stand the destruction,
Blood on their hands.

It's a loss, it's a shame, it's not right,
It's a land of confusion.
Lost, damned,
Any debators to the end.

Follow the reasons, follow back treason,
Into the luck and cave.
Force and resistance wide in the distance
Between black and white man that it is.

Across the boarder there is chaos and anger,
We'll finally come by and across the sea.
Are we all saviors in this ongoing story?
Who's prone to be?

It's a loss, it's a shame, it's not right,
It's a land of confusion.
Lost, damned,
Any debators to the end.

You know you never even been there,
You wanna know what you been try
Begin decisions based on nothing,
Nobody's thinking on their own.

Out in the old room peoples fight for their freedom,
A weak will, there is no sacrifice.
A disapproval will be known as your bury,
Who's mess can be?

It's a loss, it's a shame, it's not right,
It's a land of confusion.
Lost, damned,
Any debators to the end.
