

It Would Be So Nice

Pink Floyd

R: It would be so nice
It would be so nice
It would be so nice
To meet, sometime

1. Everybody wakes, and in the morning
Everybody cares about the weather
Hot tea and can't stop yawning
And everybody should know better
Pass the butter please.
What a waste of time

2. Have you ever read the Daily Standard?
Everybody lives beneath the ceiling
Reading all about the plane that's landed
Living out a dream that sends them reeling
Upside down?
To a distant place

*: And no one knows what I did today
But no one knows what I did today
There can be no other way
There can be no other way
But I would just like to say
But I would just like to say

R: It would be so nice...
