

Barcelona

Pink Turns Blue

You saw me all naked
A moment I'd cover - my old rotten soul
So shameful
I had to run away - had to hide from you - I had to hide from you

An ugly sensation
Was hoping to sink into the rotten earth
Explain myself
While searching for non-existent words - non-existent words

Just another lonely night

Came home at the wrong time
Were sleeping and was disturbing you Felt your warmth inside
I fled from my ugly self again - unhappy self again

Just another lonely night

I'd cover my weakness
Whilst wandering through the city night
At places
By staying up a lifetime - a lifetime - a lifetime
A night for a lifetime
