

Last Day On Earth

Pink Turns Blue

Living a last day
Forgiven past
But no return Sitting still
In deepest darkness
Feelings relieved
Waiting for
A certain angel
Sent by you
The day you went
You took my soul
Was gone for good

We'll be walking on the shores
A quest for something pure
Our love gets tired
But won't die

Relentless hope
That looks for more
It's truth
Embracing love
I know our hearts
Can't be fooled

Watching the woods, the moon and clouds in a starry night
Breathing the air of a grateful death
A quiet sigh
Slowly walking down the alley
Towards the light
I'm taking the boat that is setting sails to meet my bride

We'll be walking on the shores
A quest for something pure
Our love gets tired
But won't die

Relentless hope
That looks for more
It's truth
Embracing love
I know our hearts
Can't be fooled

I say goodbye oh futile life
I'll leave the earth my smile
It's part of the sea
My soul
