

Different Way

Pipes And Pints

Channel 55 propaganda again
A broken heart and an open end, an open end
She drowned the love shot me away
Confusing words had to get away, had to get away

Nothing to say but preach and pray
Confusing words and a lie today
We live our lives in a different way

Dont wanna hear what you have to say
Not at all, not at all
All I know I had to
Had to get away

A rainy day's thoughts swept away
Cold blooded body laying next to me, laying next to me
Jailbird Tom Werner too lost in the past
The next one could be, it could be you

Nothing to say but preach and pray
Confusing words and a lie today
We live our lives in a different way
