

Kensington Club

Pipes And Pints

Just another night at the Kensington club looking for replacement love for the one I've lost

All this emptiness feels like guiltiness seems to me like
I'm getting paralyzed

Don't know how to go on with my life with her by my side everything was right Nothings going right! Nothings going right just another night to be running Running wild!

I'm always on my own
Drinking all alone
There is nothing that I can say
That I can call my own.

She's always playing games with me
I'm just another fool
I'm just another black jack
Who got played really good

Take another step back
Think of what you say
Maybe then you'll realize
You got to change your way

The influence of all your friends
Baby girl you make no sense
Seems to me you've got no opinion of your own

Burning screaming lungs aren't breathing
Life will always savage you!
Inside! Inside! Your golden cage!

You threw me in the gutter
I'll make it to LA
A pocket full of change
Stuck at San Diego bay
Waiting for the bus
To take me up town
I hit the Rock and Roll Cafe
We're rolling out of town

This is where you put me
And this where I stay
I'm rockin and I'm rollin far far away!
Far! Far away!
