

Where We Come From

Pissing Razors

Breaking away the times have not changed
Were living for what we believe with pride in our eyes

And faith in our minds
We tread thru dishonesty

And we see, and we feel facing destiny
And we see, and we feel
Chase reality

Tearing away the times have not changed
Were searching for what we can't feel
With pride in our eyes
And faith in our minds
We tread thru dishonesty

faith and pride, we live alone deep inside
