

Letter to Memphis

Pixies

The day since I met her I can't believe it's true she came here from memphis across the ocean sailing and I saw her a I pleaded why do you come so far and she said trying to get to you how I tried to get you trying to get you
I'm sending a letter
I'll send it right to you I'll send it to memphis I know that someday everything I needed and I wanted used to be that my head was haunted and all these sirens they make me mad and all this violence it brings me down I feel strong I feel lucky
trying to get to you
said I'm going to get to you
trying to get to you.
