Shame

PJ Harvey

I don't need no rising moon I don't need no ball and chain I don't need anything but you

Such a shame, shame, shame Shame, shame Shame is the shadow of love

You changed my life We were as green as grass And I was hypnotized From the first 'til the last

Kiss of shame, shame, shame Shame is the shadow of love

I'd jump for you into the fire I'd jump for you into the flame Tried to go forward with my life

I just feel shame, shame, shame Shame, shame Shame is the shadow of love

If you tell a lie I still would take the blame If you pass me by It's such a shame, shame, shame
