It starts at daylight
I see him
Before my sad eyes
I hear him breathing
Oh lover, need you to lead me
No never thought that you'd leave

That was my veil That was my time Once held secret But now lies

No words can
Heal my heart
Inside I'm broken
Now it's done
Was she a pretty girl ?
Does she have pretty hair ?
Was she soft-spoken ?
Was there a love there ?

That was my veil That was my time Once held secret But now lies

Give back my veil Give back my time No more secret You give me lies

Give me back my veil Give back my life No more secret You give me lies Lies
