

Follow Me

Place Vendome

In your eyes reflection
I can read your mind
There's a certain connection
Saying I am the only one
And though you try to hide it
Anyone can see, easily
Your heart is on fire

I'll make your wishes come true
I'll promise you
Just let your feelings come through
And I will show you

Follow me - to the waters
Where the rivers meets the sea
Could it be - that this ocean
Will be part of you and me if you
Follow me

Why wait 'till tomorrow
When we can start today
To love one and another
Say the things that we wanna say
Cause there's a special attraction
Just between us two
Every time
When we get together

I'll give my whole world to you
I'll swear I'll do
Just put your trust in these hands
And I will show you

Follow me - to the waters
Where the rivers meets the sea
Could it be - that this ocean
Will be part of you and me if you
Follow me

I'll give my world to you
I foolish swear I'll do
I know someday we will realize
That what we have
Might just be
Paradise can't you see

Follow me - to the waters
Where the rivers meets the sea
Could it be - that this ocean
Will be part of you and me if you
Follow me
