

My Heart Is Dying

Place Vendome

Never knew about the lies
You played me for a fool and I
Kept thinking for so long
You were the only one but
You made the one mistake
Of not playing safe
I saw who you are

I can feel my heart is dying
I can hear the angels crying
All along it hurts inside 'cause
I know who you are, who you are
No more looking back tomorrow
Give away the pain and sorrow
I can feel my heart is dying
Wondering who you are, who you are

There's no way out
I know the score
I've called them in
And closed the door
Won't take it one more time
I reclaim the life that's mine
But at night when I'm alone
The dreams will hurt me on and on
Why can't you go away
There's nothing more to say
I know who you are

I can feel my heart is dying
I can hear the angels crying
All along it hurts inside 'cause
I know who you are, who you are
No more looking back tomorrow
Give away the pain and sorrow
I can feel my heart is dying
Wondering who you are, who you are

My heart is dying
I can feel that it's crying
Wondering who you are

Heart is dying
I can hear the angels crying
All along it hurts inside 'cause
I know who you are, who you are
No more looking back tomorrow
Give away the pain and sorrow
I can feel my heart is dying
Wondering who you are, who you are
