

Soulmates

Placebo

The sea's evaporating, thought it comes as no surprise
These clouds were seeing, they're explosions in the sky
It seems it's written, but we can't read between the lines

Hush, it's okay, dry your eye
Dry your eye
Soulmate dry your eye
Dry your eye
Soulmate dry your eye, 'cause soulmates never die

This one world vision turns us into compromise
What goods religion when it's each other we despise)
Damn the government
Damn their killing, damn their lies
(It's okay)
Dry your eyes
Soulmate dry your eye
Dry your eye
Soulmate dry your eye, cause soulmates never die
Soulmates never die (4x)
Never die
Soulmates never die
Soulmates never die
