

Rainy Day

Plain White T's

Oh, it's another rainy day
Another excuse for me to hide away
Fog on the window, I write your name
Oh, it's another rainy day

Outside a cloud is forming
In my heart the rain is pouring down endlessly
The sky is gray just like me, just like me

Oh, it's another rainy day
The sun isn't out to scare the dark away
Step outside to try to wash you away
Oh, it's another rainy day

Outside a cloud is forming
In my heart the rain is pouring down endlessly
The sky is gray just like me
And all my tears flood the streets
The sky is gray just like me, just like me

Well, it's cold and it's gloomy
What are you doing to me?
Is the storm ever breakin'?
Only you could make it stop raining

Outside a cloud is forming
In my heart the rain is pouring down endlessly
The sky is gray just like me
And all my tears flood the streets
The sky is gray just like me, just like me

Oh, it's another rainy day, just like me
Oh, it's another rainy day, just like me
Oh, it's another rainy day, just like
Oh, it's another rainy day
