

Sing My Best

Plain White T's

Wake in the morning
Long way from home
Alarm clock is a warning
I'm still alone

Set up for a letdown
Open my eyes
New name for the same town
It's no surprise

That it's another rough day alright
But I can't wait 'til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
I can't wait 'til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

Wake up in the morning
Another day
Grey skies bring the storm in
Things never change
Stare out of the window
Through tired eyes
So hard just to let go
It's no surprise

That it's another rough day alright
But I can't wait 'til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
I can't wait 'til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

Tonight, I'll get up on that stage
And all my problems seem to go away
Tonight, I'll get up in those lights
And I will sing my best for you tonight

No I can't wait 'til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
I can't wait 'til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
I can't wait 'til tonight
