

Be Still My Heart

Plan Three

Run for cover
I'm waiting to go off
As far away as possible
Before we lose it all

So ordinary
The way it always ends
You won't be coming back for me
Let's stop pretending now

Knees to the ground
You should all bow down
It's over now
There's no return
(So I'll just crash and burn)

Now be still my heart
Come on and let me block
(Another heart comes crashing down)
You were all I wanted
But the devils in my head
Won't make this end, right
No, another heart comes crashing down

Truth uncovers
Take your time and tool my head
The inside's unpredictable
The outside's caving in

Fallin' faster
The reason's all the same
A crash is inescapable
You can stop pretending now

Face to the ground
You should all bow down
It's over now
There's no return
(So I'll just crash and burn)

Now be still my heart
Come on and let me block
(Another heart comes crashing down)
You were all I wanted
But the devils in my head
Won't make this end, right
No, another heart comes crashing down

Fill me up
Break me down
Come on and breathe me
Come on and breathe me

Be still my heart
Come on and let me block
(Another heart comes crashing down)

You were all I wanted
But the devils in my head

Ease me
Come on and breathe me
(Another heart comes crashing down)
Ease me

No
