

I don't know how you can tell me
That I don't understand.
I've been on those shoes before
And I made my plan.
I don't want to hear those lies.
I don't want to hear those cries.
I don't want to live that way again.
I don't want to live that way again.
I found my way out;
The Savior from my sin,
He takes away all the misery and pain,
So you won't have to live that way again..
