

Love Can Kill The Blues

Platinum Weird

You don't need medicine
To numb you through your worst
Soon that medicine
Becomes your biggest curse

You don't need power
To make you feel alive
And all that money
It ain't gonna buy you an easy ride

We all know that fame is fleeting
So don't let it drag you down tonight

Love can heal
And love can burn
Stronger than anything
You've ever felt before

And when you're down
Nothing pulls you out
Like a hand for you to hold
That reaches in your soul

And fills you with the truth
Only love can kill the blues
The blues

And when you're sinking
To the bottom like a stone
You won't feel bitterness
If you keep love in your home

And if you're needing more than
More is what you'll get
If you're ready for giving up the rest

We all have our own sweet damage
But don't let it drag you down tonight

Love can heal
And love can burn
Stronger than anything
You've ever felt before

When you're down
Nothing pulls you out
Like a hand for you to hold
That reaches in your soul

Fills you with the truth
Only love can kill the blues
