

Consequence Of You

Play

What ever happened to the not insane part of me
What ever happened to believing it was meant to be
I gotta get through the consequence of you
If I had known what I know now
Would I go through with it
Sometimes I wonder how it would be
If we'd never met
That you had to leave
Was common sense to me

Cause you're a drug
And I'm an addict
I know I gotta kick that nasty habit
It's in my blood
The shots I've taken
I still don't know if I'm hallucinating

All I know is that I gotta get through
That's what I have to do
The consequence of you

Yet I recognize the symptoms of our chemistry
I know you are only twisting my sobriety
What I'm craving for
I can't take no more
Now it's crucial that I'm focusing on staying cool
And suppressing all the feelings that I have for you
I gotta give you up
It isn't worth the cost, no oh

Cause you're a drug
And I'm an addict
I know I gotta kick a nasty habit
It's in my blood
The shots I'm taking
I still don't know if I'm hallucinating

All I know is that I gotta get through
That's what I have to do
The consequence of you

All I've been thinking of is getting fixed
Can something someone come
And get me out of this
You struck me serious
Now I'm delirious
But in the long run you and I just didn't mix

Cause you're a drug
I'm an addict
I know I gotta kick a nasty habit
It's in my blood
I'm taking

Cause you're a drug
And I'm an addict

It's in my blood
The shots I'm taking
I still don't know if I'm hallucinating

All I know is that I gotta get through
That's what I have to do
The consequence of you
