

It's not me

Please the Trees

Kill me after you kill yourself
So we can soon meet again
Even in jail you can always find a friend
Kill me after you kill yourself
So we can soon meet again
Even in jail you can always find a man

Happy
Cuz he found out that the walls are not really there
Happy
Cuz he found out hat the bars are not really there

Love me after you love yourself
So we can soon meet again
At a bar you can always join me
Love me after you love yourself
So we can soon meet again
With a drink you can always find me

Happy
Cuz I found out that the walls are not really there
It's not me, it's not me
The body that get's drunk is not really there.
