

She Made Love To The Moon

Please the Trees

She made love to the moon
She made love to me
She gave away all she had
She gave away her whole being

Now she is in everything
Now she is everything
Now she is in everything

She doesn't see the beauty here she used to see
She feels nothing when she's supposed to feel
She goes to places other people are afraid to go
It's the coming back here
She fears

Now she's in everything
Now she's everything
Now she's me
She's you
Now it's her
It's her.
