But I just wanna make love I don't want to fight
No I don't want to fight at all (I don't want to fight at all)
Yeah, but you was wrong for even going through my telephone
If I was really cheating on you would you wanna know?
No, No baby you don't wanna know (baby you don't wanna know)

Do you even know what you mean to me
And all I do is try to make you happy
Even when I'm ripping and running these streets
Baby you should put a little trust in me
Aint nobody ride it the way you do
Bump and grind it the way you do
You may not believe me but girl its tru)
It's all about you
So girl im like ohhhhhhhh
Baby can we just make up (baby can we just make up)
I don't want to wait too long (I don't want to wait too long)
I'm begging like ohhhhhhhh
Baby can we please make up (baby can we please make up)
I don't want to wait too long girl

Uh-uh too long it's too wrong
I need you in my bed with your high heels shoes on Silk negligee with the bra and the cute thong
You know I act the fool anytime I get you on top of me
You my private dancer
I got one question to ask you, honestly
I know you pissed my love
But tell me you don't miss my love
