

Letter To My Ex

Pleasure P

I still can't believe that you're gone
It was supposed to be forever you and me
Still got your number in my phone
I'm just hoping it will ring, maybe it's a dream

I still smell the scent of your perfume
I can feel you holding me, even hear you breathe
I wish I could see where we went wrong
'Cause the love that we had was so strong

But they say when you love something let it go
And if it really loves you, then you would know
It will come back, it will come back
Kiss you, miss you, miss you

They say when you love something let it go
And if it really loves you, then you would know
It will come back, it will come back
'Cause baby, I, miss you, miss you, miss you

And I'm going through pictures that we took
And it's so crazy 'cause I miss your smile
Remember the dinners that we used to cook
We just laughed till we cried while we really, really, really tried

There were so many good memories
Memories between you and I
I really hope you find yourself
I'm still waiting for you

They say when you love something let it go
And if it really loves you, then you would know
It will come back, it will come back
Miss you, miss you, miss you

They say when you love something let it go
And if it really loves you, then you would know
It will come back, it will come back
'Cause baby, I, miss you, miss you, miss you

I can't make you love me
But I want you to know that I still love you
So when the music stops and you're home alone
And you lay in your bed at night
Pick up the phone and call me
'Cause I miss you, baby

They say when you love something let it go
And if it really loves you, then you would know
It will come back, it will come back
Miss you, miss you, miss you

They say when you love something let it go
And if it really loves you, then you would know
It will come back, it will come back
'Cause baby, I, miss you, miss you, miss you
