

Showing Off

Pleasure P

I been watching you all night
Damn, you're such a show-off
Yeah, shorty look right
But she look better with her clothes off

She ain't talking about fucking
Then she ain't talking about nothing
I need a gangsta bitch on my side
That I can hit up on a late night

Shorty looking good, so glad that you came
But before you keep walking, baby, can I get your name?
Your dress match your shoes, your shoes match your purse
So bad that I had to put your ass in this first like
So tell me what you drinking
Let's talk about me and you leaving
So you can tell your home girls that you coming into my world
I'm good for your body and you're good for my body
It's time to get naughty
So baby, let's slide to my crib on the West side
'Cause baby, I got you, and we got each other
And when we get to the crib I'mma take your clothes off
'Cause you look better with your clothes off

I been watching you all night
Damn, you're such a show-off
Yeah, shorty look right
But she look better with her clothes off

She ain't talking about fucking
Then she ain't talking about nothing
I need a gangsta bitch on my side
That I can hit up on a late night

Now we move, I'm kissing on your neck
That thing is so wet, so wet, so wet
I'm loving the way your body smells
That Channel no. 9 got me in a spell
You make a nigga wanna bite you
Like uhh yeah
So don't just say "no" tonight
'Cause I know that thing super tight
Baby, I really want it
You got me caught up in the moment
Take your clothes off in my bedroom
Let's take a shower on the hour
Leave the candles on till the early morning
Your body's calling me, oh

I been watching you all night
Damn, you're such a show-off
Yeah, shorty look right
But she look better with her clothes off

She ain't talking about fucking
Then she ain't talking about nothing
I need a gangsta bitch on my side
