

Start Over

Pleasure P

You're the best thing that happened to my life
But I messed up so many times
Now you say you don't trust me
Second guessing if you still love me

Girl I know it's hard cause you gave your all
And all I really did was break your heart
I swear to you I'll be committing now
Girl we both want the same thing

But if you walk out the door
And I walk out the door
If we act like we don't care
Then it won't get us nowhere

We've been down this road before
And my heart can't take no more
If we act like we don't care
It won't get us nowhere

Don't wanna start over, can't let you go girl
Cause we done put in too much time
I'm getting older and you're getting older
Ain't no need to waste no time

Cause girl I'm ready to love ya
And I'm ready to be your everything
So let's make a vow
Cause I want you to wear my, my wedding ring

Girl I was young and dumb
Thought I knew everything
Wish I could take back all the pain
Made my mistakes and you didn't say

So why you tryna leave girl?
When you know that we belong together
Without you there's no me girl
Promise to love you now and forever

But if you walk out the door
And I walk out the door
If we act like we don't care
Then it won't get us nowhere

We've been down this road before
And my heart can't take no more
If we act like we don't care
It won't get us nowhere

Don't wanna start over, can't let you go girl
Cause we done put in too much time
I'm getting older and you're getting older
Ain't no need to waste no time

Cause girl I'm ready to love ya
And I'm ready to be your everything

So let's make a vow
Cause I want you to wear my, my wedding ring

I realize that you're the only one for me and only me
I realize that you bring out the best in me, you're all I need
I realize the extra special things you do for me
Baby you're the only thing that truly means the world to me

Don't wanna start over
I'm getting older
Cause girl I'm ready to love ya
Cause I want you to wear my, my wedding ring
