

You Are Enough

Plumb

We've seen hell rage
We were sure that we would break
But You helped us
And said, do not be afraid
Then Your hope came
Just like a tidal wave
Cause You are greater
So much greater

No other God has fought for us, fought for us
There's nothing stronger than Your love, than Your love
We lift our voice and shout for You, we've overcome
You've always been, You'll always be, You are enough

We've seen darkness
Try to steal our joy away
But it trembles
At the sound of Your great name
Because Your hope came
Just like a tidal wave
Cause You are greater
So much greater

No other God has fought for us, fought for us
There's nothing stronger than Your love, than Your love
We lift our voice and shout for You, we've overcome
You've always been, You'll always be, You are enough

Just a slither of Your light breaks through the darkness
Just a whisper of Your voice breaks the coldest kind of heart
Just a simple touch can loose the lame to dancing
Oh we are dancing, oh we are dancing

No other God has fought for us, fought for us
There's nothing stronger than Your love, than Your love
We lift our voice and shout for You, we've overcome
You've always been, You'll always be, You are enough
You've always been, You'll always be
You are enough
