

This Is The Life

Pocket Full Of Rocks

If I could I'd sing a million songs to worship You
If I could I'd bow a million times to honor You Given an eternity, I might
But here and now, I'll try with all my might
This is the life You give me and it's the life I give back to You
Now and forever I live it just for You
My lips will declare Your glory, and my dance will be of Your love
The work of my hands will ever honor You
If I could I'd sing a million songs to worship You
And if I could I'd bow a million times to honor You Given all eternity, I might
But here and now, I'll try with all my might
