I got a feeling about you love, who? s been fooling who Crazy eyes, I been a foolin? you You sing songs about brass buttons and your shiny silver shoes Crazy eyes what had you to lose

Down among the South Carolina pines you spent
Most of your lifetime in deep thought
Then changes come about and you find the time you spent
Wasn't quite a reason for being bought

So now to be or not to be is the question now Crazy eyes, don? t you forget how 'Cause I? m used to seeing your face in the crowd You thought you saw me Crazy eyes blind as you can be

Down among the South Carolina pines you spent Most of your lifetime in deep thought Then changes come about and you find the time you spent Wasn't quite a reason for being bought

Crazy eyes

So now to be or not to be is the question now
Hey, don? t you forget how
'Cause I? m used to seeing your face in the crowd
And you thought you saw me
Crazy eyes, you're blind as you can be

Down among the South Carolina pines you spent Most of your life
